

Puritan Mill

Located in the Midtown West submarket of Atlanta, Puritan Mill is a mixed-use development, comprising three renovated warehouses that have won design awards for integrity of original design. Consisting of 85,000 square feet, Puritan Mill is home to a variety of tenants ranging from a police station to numerous advertising and design companies. Puritan Mill is also home to The Foundry, a 12,000 square-foot special events facility. After becoming available for leasing in the spring of 2002, Puritan Mill is currently 100% leased, and a Phase II development is in the planning stages. For more leasing information please contact either Peter Glover or Dean McNaughton.
